FOREWORD

The author has devoted to the preparation of this volume the past twenty years of his life and it is, therefore, a source of keen satisfaction to him to offer it finally as his contribution to the Stowell family. And now, upon the completion of his task, he wishes to thank all those members who have so whole-heartedly aided him in the compilation of the work. Especially, he wishes to offer to his secretary, Miss Nellie M. Chapman, his sincere and deep appreciation for her able and earnest collaboration. To a considerable extent, it has been due to her efficient and skillful assistance that The Stowell Genealogy has been brought to a successful termination.

THE STOWELL HOUSE, QUANTOCK, ENGLAND

One of the oldest houses in England, situated in Quantock, County Somerset, on the Southern coast, six miles from the Bristol Channel.

The Manor of Cothelstone came into the possession of the Stowell family in 1066 and is of great antiquity as it was built long before 1066 by a Saxon King and Queen. It then consisted of an extensive mansion, illustrated above, with many buildings immediately surrounding it including a church, eleven farm houses and fifty-four cottages. It was retained by them in an unbroken line from 1066 to 1820.

THE ORIGIN OF THE FAMILY

Although the compiler has been unable to discover the parentage of our common ancestor, the Samuel Stowell who settled in Hingham, Mass., it is reasonably certain he belongs to the Stowell or Stawell family that settled in County Somerset, England, over eight hundred years ago.

During my several visits to England I have interviewed every Stowell living in London or its vicinity and while they could throw no light on the main point of my inquiry, viz. Samuel's parentage, they all traced their own family back to Somerset and were positive there were no Stowells in England excepting those who originated in Somerset, hence a brief reference to the earlier generations as probable ancestors may be of interest.

The founder of the family was the Norman knight Adam who came over with William the Conqueror in 1066 and his services were rewarded by giving him the manor called "de Coveston or de Cothelstone" and the manor of "de Stawelle" in Moorlinch, County Somerset.

Gerard in 1633 wrote: "The Manor of Cothelstone dates back to long before the Conquest of 1066, when a Saxon King and Queen are said to have been its founders. They secluded themselves within its walls in fulfilment of a vow taken at the Holy Sepulchre at Jerusalem. It has more the appearance of a cloister than a knightly castle such as the warrior, Sir Adam, might have desired."

"Cothelstone is a very remarkable place on account of its great antiquity, being one of the oldest homes in England, situated six miles from the Bristol Channel, in Quantock, County Somerset. It came into the possession of the Stawell family in 1066. At that time the manor consisted of a beautiful and extensive mansion with many buildings belonging to it and immediately clustered around it, including the Church, eleven farm houses and fifty-four cottages. This manor has been retained in the Stawell family in an unbroken line, from oldest son to oldest son, from 1066 down to the present time."

"On the summit is a round tower, nothing whatever being known of its builder or the date of its erection. From it a magnificent view is obtained, said to be the most extensive in England."

The manor of "de Stawelle" also dates back to old Saxon times when it was known as "Estawella" or Eastern Spring.

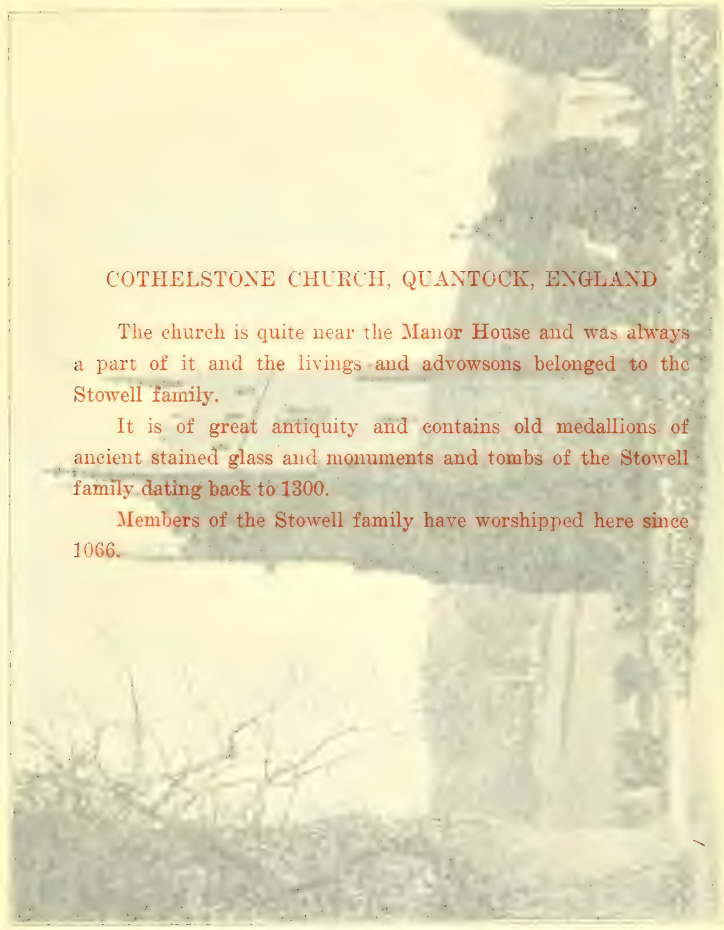

Originally these Norman knights were known only by their Christian names, but gradually they adopted for purposes of identification, as their surname, the name of the manor or estate where they lived. Thus Sir Adam became Sir Adam de Coveston. This was very soon changed to Sir Adam de Cothelstone and later on to Sir Adam de Stawelle.

The titled branch inherited by the eldest son was very influential in the 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th centuries and in the time of the Civil Wars was the most prominent family in South Western England, as they had acquired by marriage or purchase some twenty-six additional manors or estates with the church livings and advowsons that accompanied them. They built one of the largest mansion houses in England. They were royalists and staunch supporters of the Stuarts. When the Parliamentary Party and Cromwell came into power their estates were confiscated and their mansion house and the church badly damaged and Sir John Stawell was imprisoned for several years in the Tower of London, living in poverty with his health completely broken down.

Under Charles II a restoration was made of such property as remained and his son Ralph as recompense was created on the fifteenth of January, 1683, a Baron under the title of "Lord Stawell of Somerton," named after one of the other manors.

Later, when the title of Baron lapsed owing to the failure of male issue it was continued by special Act of Parliament upon the daughter Mary as Baroness Stawell, 21 May 1760, with the right of inheritance by her male descendants, but after a few generations the title of Baron again became extinct owing to the lack of male issue.

Some of the younger sons were created Knights in their own right through their ability and prominence and thus acquired the title of Sir and served as members of Parliament and in other high offices.

COTHELSTONE CHURCH, QUANTOCK, ENGLAND

The church is quite near the Manor House and was always a part of it and the livings and advowsons belonged to the Stowell family.

It is of great antiquity and contains old medallions of ancient stained glass and monuments and tombs of the Stowell family dating back to 1300.

Members of the Stowell family have worshipped here since 1066.

As the family title carried with it the control of so many church livings and advowsons, quite a large number of the descendants of the younger branches went into the ministry and naturally fell into the livings which were within the gift of the family. The most prominent was Hugh Stowell of Manchester and the Isle of Man, who was the Henry Ward Beecher of England and the most eminent and eloquent preacher of his day.

The church at Cothelstone is quite near the Manor House and was always a part of it. In the windows are some excellent specimens of ancient stained glass. The most interesting objects, however, are the tombs and monuments of the Stawell family dating back to the year 1300. Members of the Stawell family have been worshippers in it continuously from 1066 to 1820.

The church at Hingham, Mass., which was organized in 1635 and attended by Samuel Stowell, the immigrant, has had Stowell worshippers continuously from 1649 to the present day. While not the oldest church society or organization, the church building itself, erected in 1680, is the oldest meeting house in America that has been continuously used for public worship, hence the church at Cothelstone and the church at Hingham have between them had Stowell worshippers from 1066 to the present time.

Samuel was not a common name in the family in the early days. In Col. George D. Stawell's History of the Stawell family, the name of Samuel does not appear in a single instance until recorded in the Registers of Bath and Chudleigh in 1562. Forty Stowells are mentioned therein; thirty-five of these are spelled Stowell and five are spelled Stawell. The name of Samuel appears in the Bath Abbey Register which gives the birth of a Samuel Stowell on the 5th of January 1581 and the Chudleigh Parish Register gives the death of a Samuel Stowell, 7th of December 1628, probably the same Samuel. He may have married and had children though I find no record either of his marriage or of any children.

Possibly our immigrant Samuel may have been a son of his. We know the date of death of our Samuel to be in 1683, but as we do not know his age at time of death, we cannot definitely fix upon the date of his birth, but indications point to about 1625. As far as dates are concerned this would fit in with his being the son of the above Samuel who died in 1628.

Although there were a few scattered families there prior to that date, the real settlement of Hingham, Mass., occurred in 1635 when a large colony from Hingham, England, came over with the Rev. Peter Hobart among them as their pastor and organized the town naming it Hingham after their old English home.

This would make Samuel about ten years old at that time. He may have been brought over by some relative on his mother's side, or by some friend of the family or as an orphan apprenticed to one of the immigrants. This was probably the case for his name does not appear on any of the ship's registers or in any of the Hingham records until his marriage in 1649 to Mary Farrow is recorded in Hobart's Diary.

THE NAME

The Stawell Barons always spelled their name "Stawell" in their personal signature to deeds, letters, documents, etc. Owing to their large land holdings they were very frequently involved in law suits. In these Court records it is generally spelled "Stawell" though "Stowell" sometimes appears. In other records as of births, deaths and marriages, and especially in regard to others than the titled family, it is very often spelled Stowell.

In England the name is always spelled either "Stawell" or "Stowell," never in any other way. In earlier times "Stawell" predominated. At present as many spell it "Stowell" as "Stawell."

In America it has never been spelled "Stawell." The original immigrant spelled it "Stowell" and that form is generally used, although "Stoel" is quite common.

In all the vital statistics of births, deaths and marriages, and in all deeds, wills and court records it is given as "Stowell" in all of the first three generations, viz: in those of the original immigrant Samuel, in those of his six sons, Samuel[2], John[2], David[2], William[2], Israel[2], and Benjamin[2] and in those of his eleven grandsons, viz.:

THE FIRST CHURCH, HINGHAM, MASS.

"THE OLD SHIP"

The above church was built in 1680, and is the oldest church building in America which has been continuously used for church purposes. The Hingham Church Society was formed in 1635, and a church was then built which was used for 45 years, but proving too small the present church was erected. Since 1635 there have been but six pastors. The average years of their service has been 49 and their average age at death 82. Samuel Stowell worshipped in both churches and his descendants still worship there.

THE FIRST CHURCH, HINGHAM, MASS. "THE OLD SHIP"

(From plate loaned by Dr. Charles H. Stowell.)

Samuel[3], son of Samuel[2].
John[3], son of John[2].
Benjamin[3], son of Benjamin[2].
Israel[3] and Isaac[3], sons of Israel[2].
Samuel[3], David[3], Jonathan[3], John[3], Benjamin[3], and Nathaniel[3], sons of David[2].

In the case of David[3], Jonathan[3], and Nathaniel[3], however, while it appears as "Stowell" in all of their earlier records, it sometimes appears as "Stowell" and sometimes as "Stoel" after they moved to Ashford, Conn.

Seven of these eleven grandsons, viz.: Samuel[3], John[3], Benjamin[3], Israel[3], Isaac[3], Samuel[3] and Benjamin[3] and their descendants remained in Hingham, Newton or Watertown, Mass., where their name appears in the records many times, always spelled Stowell. Three of these eleven grandsons, viz.: David[3], Jonathan[3] and Nathaniel[3] went to Pomfret, Conn., and remained there, or in adjoining towns, where their name and that of their descendants frequently appears spelled both ways. Their brother John[3] also bought land in Pomfret at about the same time, but he never lived there permanently; however, his name appears there once as "Stoel."

Ten of these eleven grandsons married and had eighty-three children whose names are recorded one hundred and eighty-eight times as "Stowell" and eighteen times as "Stoel" as follows:

Samuel[3] had 5 children recorded 15 times as Stowell and 0 times as Stoel. John[3] had 8 children recorded 21 times as Stowell and 0 times as Stoel. Israel[3] had 9 children recorded 19 times as Stowell and 0 times as Stoel. Isaac[3] had 11 children recorded 27 times as Stowell and 0 times as Stoel. Benjamin[3] had 10 children recorded 22 times as Stowell and 0 times as Stoel. Samuel[3] had 9 children recorded 18 times as Stowell and 0 times as Stoel. David[3] had 12 children recorded 26 times as Stowell and 10 times as Stoel. Jonathan[3] had 4 children recorded 3 times as Stowell and 4 times as Stoel. John[3] had 8 children recorded 15 times as Stowell and 1 time as Stoel. Nathaniel[3] had 7 children recorded 22 times as Stowell and 3 times as Stoel. Total, 83 children recorded 188 times as Stowell and 18 times as Stoel.

It first appears as "Stoel" in a deed to Jonathan dated at Ashford, Conn., 31 April 1728 and again in deeds to him in 1733 and 1735. It then appears as "Stoel" in a deed to David dated Ashford, Conn., 22 Aug. 1740. As both deeds were executed in Ashford, the "Stoel" may have been written into them by the seller of the property or by the lawyer who drew them up, but most probably it was written "Stoel" by the town clerk when recording them. In any event that method of spelling originated in Ashford, Conn., and has been followed until the present day by many of the descendants of David and Jonathan. The descendants of the others retained the original way of spelling.

However, previous to 1728, it was spelled "Stowell" in the case of Jonathan, in all the statistics of his birth, death and marriage, and was also spelled "Stowell" in seven deeds recorded in Jonathan's name in Middlesex County, Mass., before he moved to Connecticut.

It was spelled "Stowell" previous to 1740 in the case of David, in all the statistics of his birth, death and marriage and was spelled "Stowell" in seven deeds recorded in David's name in Middlesex County, Mass., before he moved to Connecticut and was also spelled "Stowell" in nine deeds recorded in David's name in Pomfret after he moved to Connecticut.

After 1728 there were eleven deeds recorded in Ashford, Conn., in the name of Jonathan Stoel. After 1740 there were two deeds recorded in Ashford, Conn., seventeen in Willington, Conn., and three in Windham, Conn., in the name of David Stoel.

There are several instances where members of the same family spelled their name differently and in some cases like that of David and Jonathan cited above, the same individual spelled it sometimes as "Stowell" and sometimes as "Stoel."

Thus it will be seen that for the first eighty years of the family's existence in America, the name was always spelled "Stowell" never "Stoel."

THE SEARCH FOR SAMUEL

The early settlers of New England scrupulously preserved their church and the public records and it is owing to these customs that we have such a full record of the first four generations, marred only by the destruction of some of them by fire.

During the French and Indian Wars the Colonial troops, marching on their way to Canada through the then wilderness now known as Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, were not slow in recognizing the fertility of the soil and the possibilities of acquiring larger farms on easier terms than could be obtained in their home towns, which were becoming too crowded for farming purposes; hence there followed a large emigration into this new territory which these wars opened up.

After the Revolution a still larger emigration took place into New York and the western territory beyond. This being a wilderness, church and town organizations were slow in forming and the same care was not taken as in the original settlements, so the vital statistics were deficient and consisted quite largely of what were kept in the family Bible. These old Bibles were gradually lost and are now very rapidly disappearing.

Believing it was necessary for some one to rescue from oblivion at once, before it was too late, this still existing but fast disappearing material, the compiler commenced about twenty years ago to gather data about our Stowell ancestors. He also believes he has had exceptional facilities in making his researches, because being a life member of the Minnesota Historical Society at St. Paul, where he then lived, he had the "free run" of their most excellent library, that is, he had the privilege of going back among the shelves and taking down the books himself and did not have to fill out a card and wait for an attendant to bring the book to the reading room. He also enjoyed, for the same reason, similar privileges at the well known New England Historic Genealogical Society in Boston and being an ex-member of Congress had the same courtesy extended to him by Mr. Spofford, the librarian of the Congressional Library at Washington, where he spent several months in research work.

While on a trip up the Nile in 1898-9, I had the good fortune to become acquainted with Sir John Evans, the well known Egyptologist, a Director of the British Museum and next to Lord Kelvin, the most noted scientist of his day in England. He was then on a mission to investigate for them the authenticity of some Egyptian palimpsests. He was also President of several Scientific and Antiquarian Societies, among them The Society of Antiquaries, of London, the leading genealogical society of England.

When I went to London, I was introduced by him to the Society of Antiquaries at Burlington House where I had the "free run" of their library; also to the British Museum and to Somerset House and to Sir Henry Maxwell Lyte, in charge of the Records at Chancery Lane, and to Lord Sherborne, the present representative of the titled Stowells and the custodian of all their papers and documents.

Any one who knows how difficult it is for an outsider, even for an Englishman who is not a member, to cross the threshold of an English Club or Society, can appreciate what an advantage this introduction was. I personally examined every book in the Society of Antiquaries, searching for the date and place of birth and the parentage of our common ancestor Samuel, but without success.

In 1913 I commissioned the well known genealogist J. Gardner Bartlett to search in England for the ancestors of Samuel Stowell, but the World War so completely paralyzed all such efforts that he was compelled to give up and return to America in 1915, before he had completed the examination. While he covered most of the ground, there is still much to be examined.

His report herewith shows what records he examined, so that anyone who desires in the future to resume the search can take it up where he left off and thus avoid duplication.

"MY DEAR MR. STOWELL:

The following sources were examined during a search in 1914 and 1915 for the English ancestry of Samuel Stowell.

Lists were made of all Stowell wills to the year 1690 in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury and in all the local Probate Courts covering the Counties of Beds, Berks, Bucks, Cambridge, Cheshire, Derby, Devon, Dorset, Essex, Gloucester, Hants, Herts, Hunts, Kent, Lancaster, Leicester, Lincoln, Norfolk, Northampton, Nottingham, Oxford, Rutland, Somerset (Wells and Taunton), Stafford, Suffolk (Bury St. Edmunds, Ipswich and Norwich), Surrey, Sussex, Warwick, Wiltshire, Worcester and York.

Abstracts were made of all the Stowell Wills in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury and of the Somerset Wills at Wells and Taunton; the few Stowell wills found in all the other Courts were read but not abstracted. No Samuel Stowell was found in any of these wills.

Sixteen Stowell suits were found in the Star Chamber Courts between 1558 and 1603. These were examined but no mention of a Samuel Stowell was found.

About 100 Stowell suits were found in the Court of Chancery between 1558 and 1714; these were all examined, but no Samuel Stowell was found.

In the Court of Request from 1603 to 1625 no Stowell suit was found.

The Parish Registers of Meare and Glastonbury were examined. No Stowell item was found although there was a John Stowell on the subsidy or tax list of 1628 at Meare.

As the Stowell family was located principally in Somersetshire, I have the theory that Samuel Stowell of Hingham, Mass., was brought over from England by some relatives, not of his family name, who came from Somersetshire and settled in Hingham, like the Otis, Gill, Lane, Frye and some other families, but I was not able to find proof to establish this theory.

J. GARDNER BARTLETT."

STATISTICS

While prosecuting this work, the writer has had it constantly forced upon his notice that the family is now steadily diminishing in numbers as the following table will show:

Generation	Total No. Children	Total No. Sons	Married Sons	These Married Sons had Children
1st Samuel	11
2nd	11	7	6	27 or 4½ per family
3rd	27	16	10	87 or 8 7-10 per family
4th	87	47	40	285 or 7⅛ per family
5th	285	148	114	773 or 6¾ per family
6th	773	402	278	of these 278 I have the record of 259 who had 1372 children or 5 3-10 per family.
7th 1372	have record of		388	1550 or 4 per family
8th 1550	have record of		342	956 or 2 8-10 per family

Of the six married sons of Samuel[1], three, viz: Samuel[2] John[2] and Benjamin[2] had only one married son each. William[2] had one daughter, but no sons. David[2] had ten children, with five married sons and eighteen married grandsons, and Israel[2] had five children, with two married sons and eleven married grandsons; so these two were the prolific founders of the family and the average was seven and one-half each, though the whole family of Samuel[1] only averaged four and one-half.

The next three generations had an average of seven and one-half as an unusually large proportion lived and married. This does not mean that a family of eight would quadruple or be four times larger than their progenitors. On the average nearly one-fourth of the children die in infancy. Some do not marry and of those who do some have no children, so the practical result is that only about one-half of the children marry and have families; but these three generations with an average of seven and one-half children actually about tripled the number of Stowells in existence for each generation. Since then there has been a falling off.

Something has been found out about every Stowell mentioned in the first four generations except about Josiah[3] and Elizabeth[3], the children of David[2] and Elizabeth[4], daughter of Samuel[3] David[2]. As I can find no record of either their death or marriage, they probably died in infancy.

THE STOWELL HOUSE, HINGHAM, MASS.

One of the oldest houses in America, on Fort Hill Street, at the foot of the hill on which stood the old fort prior to King Philip's War.

The streets were then mere grassy lanes without sidewalks. The houses were of logs with thatched roofs and oiled paper for windows. Here Samuel Stowell lived. Later, on the same spot, over 250 years ago, the above house was built. It is still standing and has been occupied by at least five generations of the descendants of Samuel Stowell.

FIRST GENERATION

1. SAMUEL[1] STOWELL was a blacksmith. In those days, especially in a small community like Hingham, the village blacksmith was a very useful member. He not only shod the horses, but repaired all the wagons, farming tools and implements and, what was of great importance, the fire arms with which those pioneers defended their homes and property. His work was humble and undoubtedly crude measured by modern standards, but it covered a wide scope, was essential and apparently was well done for he stood well and was a respected member in that rather dignified and self respecting community, for his descendants all married into the best families of Hingham and Newton.

Samuel does not appear to have taken any part in the political or official or church life of Hingham for his name does not appear as an office holder. Bringing up a large family seemingly engrossed all his time and thoughts. His mental characteristics are shown in that clause of his will wherein he provided for his wife and children.

The will of Samuel[1] Stowell was dated 27 Oct. 1683, probated 30 Jan. 1683-4. Wife Mary and sons Samuel and David Stowell appointed Administratrix and Administrators. "To wife Mary for her maintenance and the bringing up of my children, not already brought up, during the time of her widowhood, then on her marriage or decease, the estate is to be divided among my children, both sons and daughters, my eldest son Samuel to have a double share. My beloved friends Capt. John Jacob and Thomas Lincoln to be overseers of my estate." Inventory £185.1.2 (Suff. Prob., Vol. 6, p. 447.)

Residence, Fort Hill Street, Hingham. Had a lot in Hingham granted to him in 1656 and drew lot No. 4, his share in undivided land in Cohasset in 1670. "At a town meeting 12 Dec. 1677, the inhabitants who are proprietors of the undivided common lands in said Hingham give and grant unto Samuel Stowell to his heirs and assigns forever, the 59th lot in 4th Division of land in said Hingham and Weymouth, containing ten and one-half acres, etc."

Samuel was born in England and died in Hingham, Mass., 9 Nov. 1683. He married 25 Oct. 1649, MARY FARROW, daughter of John and Frances Farrow, born in Hingham, County Norfolk, England, 22 Sept. 1633. She died in Hingham, Mass., 24 Oct. 1708, age 75. She married second, 10 Oct. 1689, Joshua Beal, a widower who lived on an adjoining lot and was a selectman of Hingham from 1669-1699 and a Deputy to the General Court for Hingham in 1700.

Her parents, John and Frances Farrow, sailed from England in 1635, when Mary was two years old. They settled in Hingham where they had land granted them in 1636. John Farrow died in Hingham, Mass., 7 July 1686-7, and his wife Frances died there 28 Jan. 1688-9. His will dated 28 March 1687, probated 17 Aug. 1687, mentions his daughter Mary, wife of Samuel Stowell and his granddaughter Mary, wife of John Garnet.

The immigrant William[1] Lane, descended from the Lanes who went to England with William the Conqueror, settled in Dorchester in 1635 and had six children of whom George[2] was the 4th.

This George had a house and lot granted him in Hingham, 18 Sept. 1635. He was a shoemaker and a Selectman 1669 to 1678. Had nine children, of whom Josiah[3] was the third. Josiah had ten children, of whom George, who married Elizabeth Stowell, was the third. He was a carpenter.

George[4] in his will, probated 9 June 1741, provided "and further 'tis my mind and will that my negro man servant, named Boston, should, in consideration of his faithful services, be set at liberty and have his full freedom from a state of slavery, after the decease of my said wife, Elizabeth Lane.''

The will of Elizabeth, dated 15 March 1746, probated 3 Oct. 1746, Joseph Lewis, Exr., bequeaths to George Lane French, Theodore French, Abigail French and to Elizabeth Stowell, dau. of Israel, Remember Garnet, Hannah Callender, Ruth Berry, Leah Bell and Rachel Stowell.

v. WILLIAM, b. 12 Oct. 1694, d. Hingham, Mass., 20 April 1771, age 76. Unmarried. Administration was granted on the estate of William Stowell, late of Hingham, deceased, to Seth Briggs, of Pembroke, Plymouth County, and to Adam Stowell of Hingham, Suffolk County, 26 April 1771. Inventory returned 20 Dec. 1771, gives personal property £27.13.4 and real estate in Abington, Weymouth and Hingham £862 (Suff. Prob. 14920). His sister Rachel having died before him in 1748, unmarried, William apparently divided his estate among six of the children of his sister Hannah (Stowell) Briggs and four of the children of his brother Samuel, one-tenth to each, viz.: to John Briggs, Seth Briggs, James Briggs, William Briggs, Rachel Hatch, wife of Jonathan Hatch, and Hannah Holmes, wife of John Holmes, who were children of Hannah, and to Adam Stowell, Joseph Stowell, Samuel Stowell and Rachel Remington, wife of Thomas Remington, who were four of the children of Samuel; but he does not mention Obadiah, the other son of Samuel, or Obadiah's children.

In appraising the shares divided to Adam Stowell and Joseph Stowell, consideration had been had by us of their mother's right of improvement in the pieces of land at Hochley and New Bridge for life (Suff. Prob. 25 May 1772).

3. JOHN[2] STOWELL (Samuel[1]) was born in Hingham, Mass., 15 March 1657-8, died there 10 Nov. 1689, age 31, m. there 3 Sept. 1683, MARY BEAL, dau. of John and Mary (Gill) Beal, born at Hingham, Mass., bp. 26 Oct. 1662, died there 7 June 1748, age 85. She m. 2d at Boston, Mass., 31 May 1695, NATHANIEL HOBART, son of Thomas and Jane Hobart, born 25 May 1665.

Administration granted widow Mary, 28 April 1691. Inventory £165.10.11. Distribution one-third to Mary and two-thirds to John, only child, 31 May 1695. (Suff. Prob. No. 1841.)

John Beal arrived in Boston, 10 Aug. 1638, in the ship Diligent from Hingham, England. Was a shoemaker. Settled in Hingham, Mass. and had six acres of land granted him on South St. in 1638. Had six sons, four daughters and two servants. His first wife, Nazareth, was a sister of the Hingham Minister, Peter Hobart. She died 23 Sept. 1658. He married second, 10 March 1659, Mrs. Mary Jacobs, who died 15 June 1681. He died in 1688, age 100 years. Was deputy to the General Court in 1649 and 1659. His eldest son John was born in England about 1627 and married first, Elizabeth, 6 Jan. 1658-9, who died 1 Feb. 1659-60. He married second, Mary Gill, dau. of Thomas and Hannah (Otis) Gill who was baptised at Hingham, Mass., Jan. 1643-4, died there 17 June 1701. He died at Hingham, Mass., 12 Sept. 1694. Their daughter Mary, the second of the name, bp. 26 Oct. 1662, married John Stowell.

John Stowell bought land in Hingham of Thomas and Susannah Jewell, 28 March 1687 and of Abraham and Sarah Holman, 6 Dec. 1688.

Children of John and Mary (Beal) Stowell born in Hingham:

i. INFANT[3], b. 21 May 1684, d. in infancy.
ii. JOHN, b. 16 Sept. 1685, d. Hingham, Mass., Oct. 1685.
9. iii. JOHN, b. 14 July 1687.

THE PARENTAGE OF DAVID, JONATHAN AND NATHANIEL WHO WENT TO POMFRET, CONN.

The original immigrant, Samuel, had eleven children, seven of whom were sons. One of these died in infancy; the other six married. Of the six married sons, four remained in Hingham, viz.: Samuel, John, William and Benjamin; and their records fully appear in the Vital Statistics of Hingham. The other two, viz.: David and Israel moved to Newton where they raised large families, but the destruction by fire in 1770 of the church archives of Newton has left us with very imperfect data as to the births, marriages and deaths of their children.

The Hingham group, comprising four out of six married sons of Samuel, left the following descendants:
Samuel[2] who had only 1 married son and 4 married grandsons.
John[2] who had only 1 married son and 2 married grandsons.
William[2] who had only 0 married son and 0 married grandsons.
Benjamin[2] who had only 1 married son and 3 married grandsons.
Making a total of 3 married sons and 9 married grandsons.

The Newton group comprising two out of the six married sons of Samuel, left the following descendants:
David[2] who had 5 married sons and 18 married grandsons
Israel[2] who had 2 married sons and 11 married grandsons making a total of 7 married sons and 29 married grandsons.

It will be seen that one-half of the grandsons of Samuel and nearly one-half of the great grandsons were descendants of David[2] and over one quarter were descendants of Israel[2] and that the Newton group furnished over three quarters of all the descendants of Samuel[1]. Moreover, twelve out of the eighteen grandsons of David[2] were children of David[3], Jonathan[3] and Nathaniel[3]. Thus one-third of all the descendants of Samuel[1] came from these three who went to Connecticut, which is probably the origin of the general tradition that "the Stowell family is descended from three brothers." In view of these facts the loss by fire of the early data of three quarters of the Stowell family has not only been a serious handicap in tracing them, but also in separating the children of David from those of Israel as well as determining which of David's children were by his first wife, Mary Champney, and which were by his second wife, Mary Stedman. Its importance is so apparent that it has been considered desirable to give in detail every known fact bearing upon the question.

During the earlier years of the work of compilation the prevalent belief was that David[3], Jonathan[3], and Nathaniel[3] were the children of Israel[2] and the work was prosecuted for some time upon that theory. Some still adhere to it, but I have failed to find and they have failed to furnish any positive proof sustaining it; on the contrary, the known facts assign them to David[2].

They have been credited to David[2] largely by a process of elimination. They could not have been the children of Samuel[2], John[2], William[2] or Benjamin[2] (the Hingham group) because the Vital Statistics of Hingham contain very complete data respecting all the members of that group, which data such as dates of birth and marriage exclude them from being their possible parents. It will also be noticed that the Hingham records make no mention whatever of either David, Jonathan or Nathaniel, an omission not likely to occur if they had belonged to the Hingham group, for they were too prominent and too numerous to have been overlooked by that painstaking community. They must therefore have been the children of either David or Israel, although there is no affirmative proof in any town record to show which. If it can be shown by the Court records that they were not the children of Israel, then, perforce, they must have been the children of David.

The Administration of the Estate of Israel, and the Court records relative thereto clearly show they were not the children of Israel. Marriage and birth dates negatively show the same thing; hence they must have been the children of David, the only possible parent left.

It will be borne in mind that no known fact conflicts with this theory, while under it every fact is possible; furthermore, from wills, baptisms and other sources all the other children of both David and Israel can be properly placed and accounted for.

Administration of Estate of Israel Stowell.

Midd. Prob. No. 15587, 6 Sept. 1725. Administration was granted on the Estate of Israel Stowell, late of Newton, deceased, to Israel Stowell his eldest son, etc.

7 Jan. 1726. Appraisers appointed, Joseph Ward, William Marean, John Stone. Bondsmen, Israel Stowell, weaver of Newton, Joseph Ward, husbandman.

27 April 1726. The following heirs sign the appraisal of the estate signifying their approval: "Israel Stowell, eldest son; Abigail Stowell and Elizabeth Stowell of full age; Robert Murdock guardian of Isaac Stowell and Temperance Stowell, minors."

Vol. 17, p. 491. 14 Nov. 1726. The estate could not be divided without prejudice to its value so the Judge "at the nomination of Israel Stowell, the deceased's eldest son, Abigail Stowell and Elizabeth Stowell, daughters of full age and Robert Murdock, guardian of the two minor children of said deceased, appoints Joseph Ward, William Marean and John Stone, all of Newton, to appraise the estate."

14 Nov. 1726. The guardianship of Isaac Stowell, a minor in his 19th year, and of Temperance Stowell in her 15th year, two children of Israel Stowell, late of Newton, deceased, intestate, at their own election, is committed to Robert Murdock of said Newton, yeoman. Israel Stowell, weaver, surety.

10 Jan. 1727. The heirs of Abigail Stowell, Elizabeth Stowell and Robert Murdock, guardian, sign Israel's account.

Vol. 45, p. 286. 9 Nov. 1736. Isaac Stowell of Dedham, weaver; Abigail Pease, wife of Josiah Pease of Upton, Worcester Co., husbandman; Elizabeth Stowell and Temperance Stowell, both of Newton, singlewomen; heirs of Israel Stowell, deceased, receipt to Israel Stowell, Administrator, for their share of the property.

The record of the Court that Israel[3] is the eldest son is the crux of the whole question. The Court proceedings covering a period of over ten years make no mention of David, Jonathan or Nathaniel, an omission hardly possible had they been Israel's children. The following facts about Israel's children are, however, established.

1. Abigail, the oldest child, was born in Hingham per Hingham records 13 Sept. 1699. We know Israel moved to Newton in 1700.
2. Israel designated by the Court as the oldest son was born about 1703 after the family moved to Newton.
3. Elizabeth designated by the Court as of full age in 1726 was born about 1705.
4. Isaac, guardianship records state he was in his 19th year in 1726, hence born about 1708.
5. Temperance, guardianship records state she was in her 15th year in 1726, hence born about 1712.

As Israel[3], born about 1703, was the eldest son as shown by the Court Records, then David[3], Jonathan[3] and Nathaniel[3]—if they were his brothers—must have been born after 1703 and must also have been born in the years intermediate between the births of Israel, Elizabeth, Isaac and Temperance; hence David could not have been born earlier than 1704 and Jonathan not earlier than 1706.

We know that David married Patience Herrington, 2 May 1716; that he bought land in Newton, 1 May 1717, and executed a mortgage 4 Jan. 1718; hence if David[3] was the son of Israel[2] as claimed, he was only twelve years old when he married Patience in 1716; only thirteen years old when he bought that land in 1717; only fourteen years old when he executed that mortgage in 1718 and only fifteen years old when Elizabeth was born in 1719.

We know that Jonathan[3] married Margaret Hammond, 8 Oct. 1719; bought land in 1718 and sold land in 1721; therefore, if he were a son of Israel[2] as claimed, he was only thirteen years old when he married; only twelve years old when he bought that land and only fifteen when he executed that deed. The improbability of these youthful marriages and the impossibility of such land transactions, coupled with the Court records, clearly eliminate them as the children of Israel[2]; hence David[2] is the only possible parent remaining.

David[2] left no will, nor are there any Court records to show whether he was or was not the father of David[3], Jonathan[3] and Nathaniel[3]; but a strong presumption that he was the father of David[3] is shown in Supreme Court case No. 16369 where an Attachment was issued against David Stowell, Senior, and David Stowell, Junior, 15 Dec. 1722, on account of a bond they had jointly given R. Dewing. This bond contains the original signature of David Stowell, Senior and David Stowell, Junior, and points to a relationship between them; besides at this time, there was no other David Stowell in existence, nor was one possible.

The strongest evidence that they were the sons of David[2] lies in the fact that the 2d Church of Watertown has a record of the baptism on 20 Nov. 1709, of David, Mary, Jonathan, John, Nathaniel, Josiah and Benjamin, all children of "Goodman Stowell" and that "Goodman Stowell" and his wife owned the Covenant and that the five oldest children consented to the Covenant on that day. All these were his children by the 2d wife Mary Stedman and were all baptised on the same day.

As we know from other data that Mary, John and Benjamin were undoubtedly children of David[2], it follows that their brothers David, Jonathan and Nathaniel were also his children.

Equally strong is the fact that Robert Murdock and David Stowell married sisters and that Robert Murdock was appointed guardian of Israel's children, Isaac and Temperance. If David, Jonathan and Nathaniel had also been children of Israel, Robert Murdock would have been appointed their guardian. They were omitted because Robert Murdock knew them to be the children of his brother-in-law, David Stowell.

On the other hand presumptive evidence against David being their father is found in the case of Benjamin[3], a son of David[2], who died unmarried and whose estate was administered by his brother John[3].

Midd. Prob. No. 15585. 22 Dec. 1729. Administration on the estate of Benjamin Stowell, unmarried, late of Newton, deceased, husbandman, granted to John Stowell of Watertown, husbandman, with Samuel Stowell of Watertown, clothier, as surety; worded "Whereas your late brother Benjamin Stowell, late of Newton, deceased, etc."

Over a year afterwards the Court instructed John to "notify the heirs to appear" showing there had been some delay or difficulty in the matter.

11 Feb. 1731. John Stowell was instructed by the Court to notify the heirs to appear and he endorsed on the back of the order that he had "notified the following heirs to appear, viz. Samuel Stowell, Ruth Osborn and Mary King."

This includes the names of all the then living children of David except the three we are considering. It would seem as though the absence of their names in the Court proceedings would eliminate them as children of David, just as we eliminated them in the case of Israel, but there is this difference. Israel's estate was fully considered and finally settled by the Court. Benjamin's estate was never wound up or settled in Court nor considered in the Court beyond the above quotations, but was apparently settled by the heirs by an agreement among themselves outside of the Court.

It will be noticed John reports to the Court that he has "Notified the following heirs" implying he has not notified all of them, possibly because at that time David, Jonathan and Nathaniel were living in Pomfret, Conn., and consequently were beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, but more probably because John the Administrator also bought land in Pomfret about this time and lived there for a while and that as Benjamin's property was personal they made amicable division among themselves and never closed up the case in Court.

As there are no records of the birth of David's children by either Mary Champney or Mary Stedman, the dates can be given only approximately; the parentage, however, is established by the will of Samuel Champney.

Midd. Prob. No. 4242. Will dated 21 Sept. 1692. Probated 6 Jan. 1695-6. Mentions his wife Sarah, sons Samuel and Joseph, daughter Sarah Clark and grandchildren, Sarah and Mercy Clark. He also mentions David Stowell and his grand children, Samuel Stowell and Ruth Stowell, children of his daughter Mary (Champney) Stowell, deceased; Samuel Stowell to receive his legacy when he is twenty-one and Ruth Stowell when she is seventeen. In case both his sons Samuel and Joseph die without issue, then property goes to daughters. In a Codicil made 11 May 1694, he cancels his bequest to his wife Sarah, deceased, and to his son-in-law David Stowell, but does not cancel his bequest to David's children, Samuel and Ruth.

This cancellation was probably because David had married again. As Samuel Champney did not make his will or the codicil until after the death of his daughter Mary and until after David Stowell had married Mary Stedman, it is evident Samuel and Ruth were the only children of David by Mary Champney and by inference the other children were by Mary Stedman. The latter, in the absence of any other data, have been arranged in the order named in their baptism, which is also the order of their marriage.

1. David[3] married Patience Herrington 2 May 1716 and was probably born about 1693.
2. Mary[3] married John King 2 April 1718 and was probably born about 1695.
3. Jonathan[3] married Margaret Hammond 8 Oct. 1719 and was probably born about 1697.
4. John[3] married Sarah Ford 1 Nov. 1722 and was probably born about 1699.
5. Nathaniel[3] married Margaret Trowbridge 22 Oct. 1731 and was probably born about 1703.
6. Josiah[3] was probably born about 1705.
7. Benjamin[3] was probably born about 1708.
8. Elizabeth[3] was baptised at Watertown in 1711.

Suff. Prob., 27 Jan. 1678. Administration was granted on estate of Nathaniel Stedman (aged about 50) deceased, to Temperance Stedman, his widow.

Midd. Deeds, 2 Jan. 1693-4. Temperance Stedman, widow, and Nathaniel Stedman, Junior, only son, and Robert Murdock of Roxbury and his wife, Hannah Murdock, one of the daughters of Nathaniel Stedman, Senior, of Muddy River, deceased, intestate, sell to Roger Adams of Muddy River, land that was Nathaniel Stedman's Senior.

Midd. Deeds, Vol. 12, p. 255. David Stowell and Robert Murdock, both of Cambridge, husbandmen, sell on 29 June 1698 to Thomas Belknap of Cambridge, glover, for £17.0.0, land in Woburn, Mass., containing Mansion House, called "Forty pound Meadow" theirs by inheritance.

(Signed) David Stowell,
Mary Stowell, his wife.
Robert Murdock,
Hannah Murdock, his wife.

Mary Stedman, born before 1678, the date of her father's death, was probably a minor in 1693-4 at the time of the first sale cited above for her name does not appear on that deed, but she became of age before the second sale in 1698 when her name appears. Hannah Stedman married Robert Murdock, per Roxbury records, 28 April 1692. Mary Stedman married David Stowell, per Cambridge records, either on the 7 April 1692 or 7 April 1695. There is some doubt about the date of Mary's marriage. The original entry in the Midd. Prob. Registry appears to have been changed from 7 April 1693 to 7 April 1692, apparently a contemporary correction. The figures do not suggest 7 April 1695, a date often quoted, though the dates of the two deeds quoted above would indicate it was in 1695 rather than in 1692. On the other hand, preceding this entry on the original paper are two other marriages of Dec. 1692 and immediately following it is another of Dec. 1692. As there are only four marriages in the group, the correct date is apparently 7 April 1692. This date is confirmed also by Midd. Deeds Vol. 18, p. 220, David Stowell with consent of wife Mary, sells to John Ellis, land in Cambridge, 7 Jan. 1694, showing he was married to Mary Stedman before 7 April 1695, unless the Mary who signed was Mary Champney. Now the codicil to the will of Samuel Champney, dated 11 May 1694, states that his daughter Mary was then dead; hence if it was his daughter Mary who signed that deed on the 7th Jan. 1694, then she must have died and David must have married Mary Stedman in the four month interval between the 7th Jan. 1694 and 11 May 1694.

Midd. Deeds, Vol. 14, p. 429. Nathaniel Hobart of Hingham sells to David Stowell of Watertown, weaver, land in Watertown 6 Feb. 1707-8, showing David lived in Watertown in 1708.

David was undoubtedly a man of great strength of character and of good social standing for his children all married well and became prominent citizens in their respective communities. This was especially so of Mary who married John King and was the mother of the numerous Kings who occupied such prominent positions in the earlier days of our country.

Although only sixty-four when he died he had long been known in Newton as "Old Stowell." He was in Woburn in 1686 and in Watertown in 1708, but was identified with Newton. He was a weaver by occupation. The only office he held was that of Surveyor of Highways, 5 March 1715.

4. DAVID[2] STOWELL (Samuel[1]) was born in Hingham, Mass., bp. there 8 April 1660, died at Newton, Mass., 9 Sept. 1724, age 64. He married first on 4 Dec. 1685, MARY CHAMPNEY, dau. of Samuel and Sarah (Hubbard) Champney, born Billerica, Mass., 12 May 1662, died at Watertown, Mass., 9 Sept 1690. David married second at Cambridge, Mass., 7 April 1692, MARY STEDMAN, dau. of Nathaniel and Temperance Stedman, who died at Newton, Mass., 27 Sept. 1724.

Children by first wife Mary Champney:

    3. FRANCES, b. 28 May 1723, m. (Int. Boston, Mass., 20 April 1749) WILLIAM DOCKUM.
    4. SARAH, b. 5 Oct. 1724, m. (Int. Boston, Mass., 1 Nov. 1744) EPHRAIM MORTON of Plymouth, Mass., son of Ephraim and Susanna (Morton) Morton, b. Plymouth, Mass., 1722.

13. v. JONATHAN, b. Watertown, Mass., bp. 20 Nov. 1709.
14. vi. JOHN, b. Watertown, Mass., bp. 20 Nov. 1709.
15. vii. NATHANIEL, b. Watertown, Mass., bp. 20 Nov. 1709.

viii. JOSIAH, b. Watertown, Mass., bp. 20 Nov. 1709. He probably died young as he is the only one not mentioned in his brother Benjamin's estate.

ix. BENJAMIN, b. Watertown, Mass., bp. 20 Nov. 1709, d. Newton, Mass., 29 Nov. 1729, unmarried. His estate, probated 22 Dec. 1729, is given in statement above.

x. ELIZABETH, b. Watertown, Mass., bp. 15 July 1711. Although there is no authority for it, the Elizabeth given by Bond as bp. 15 July 1711 is placed here because it is the only place where she can be put. She is generally credited with being the daughter of David[3], but in order to do that they have to assume he had a wife before Patience and they give her the name of Elizabeth. David[3] was hardly old enough in 1711 to have a daughter, being only 18. There is no record of any marriage of this Elizabeth; neither is there any record of the birth, death or marriage of this daughter Elizabeth; nothing but the baptism. She may have been the daughter of David[2], for it may be noted in the deed given above that David[2] bought land in Watertown, 6 Feb. 1707-8 and is described in the deed as "of Watertown," and all his other children were baptised there 20 Nov. 1709, so he may have been living there in 1711. She probably died young for in the settlement of the estate of Benjamin, who would have been her brother, no mention is made of a sister Elizabeth, although it mentions all his known brothers and sisters except Josiah, who also probably died young.

David Stowell resided in Watertown and Newton, Mass., and Pomfret and Windham and Willington, Conn. He was a weaver in Massachusetts and a farmer in Connecticut.

Will of David Stoel of Willington, Conn. dated 14 May 1763, probated 5 Sept. 1763. Wife Mary Stowell and Moses Holmes, executors.

Bequeaths to wife Mary Stoel all household furniture, also a horse, cow and six sheep and one-half of dwelling house, barn and farm and fire wood, suitably cut to fit the fire place, as long as she remains my widow. To son David Stoel, one-half of dwelling house, barn and farm, all farming tools and all stock except that given widow. To sons Isaac Stowell and Samuel Stoel the whole of 200 acres lying in Walpole, N. H., to be divided equally. To grandchildren Jonathan, Josiah, Eunice and Patience Stoel, children of my late son Ebenezer Stoel, deceased, twenty shillings which upon consideration of a valuable portion I have heretofore given their father is their full portion out of my estate. To my daughter Patience Stoel and her heirs, ten pounds. To my three sons, David, Isaac and Samuel Stoel, all my wearing apparel to be divided equally.

The name is spelled Stowell in three Newton and Andover marriage records.

David Stowell and wife Mary joined Hampton Church, 5 Sept. 1742.

David Stowell sells dwelling in Newton, Mass., 26 Oct. 1724. (Midd. Deeds.) As his wife Patience died, 1 Oct. 1724, five days after giving birth to Ebenezer, this sale may have been of his homestead preparatory to moving to Pomfret, where his name appears in 1725.

Administration granted John Herrington, eldest son, 10 Aug. 1741, on estate of John Herrington of Waltham. (Midd. Prob.) In the division 13 Nov. 1741, it states "we can not find that the children of Patience Herrington, deceased, the late wife of David Stowell, have received anything saving nine pounds paid their mother in her life time."

David Stoel was undoubtedly a man of great energy and activity as is evidenced by his numerous purchases of land, frequent removals to new localities, etc.

12. MARY[3] STOWELL (David[2] Samuel[1]) was baptised at Watertown, Mass., 20 Nov. 1709, died 7 March 1770, married at Boston, Mass., (Int. 2 April 1718) JOHN KING of Boston, his second marriage.

John King, born in Kent, England, came to Boston in the latter part of the 17th century. He had five children by his first wife, viz.: John, Elizabeth, William, Richard and Lydia. Of these Richard died when three years old. His eldest child by his second wife, Mary Stowell, was also named Richard. These two Richards have led to some confusion as to which was the maternal ancestor of the many prominent descendants of Richard King of Scarboro, but it was unquestionably Mary Stowell.

There has also been some doubt as to whether John King married the Mary Stowell who was the daughter of David of Newton, or Mary the daughter of William of Hingham. This is settled, however, by the Boston Marriage Records and by the Middlesex Probate. The Boston Records give "John King. Int. marriage, 2 April 1718 to Mary Stowell of Newton."

Administration was granted on estate of Benjamin Stowell, late of Newton, deceased, son of David, unmarried, to his brother John Stowell. 11 Feb. 1731, John Stowell signs to the Court that he "has notified the following heirs to appear, viz.: Samuel Stowell, Ruth Osborn and Mary King." (Midd. Prob. No. 15585.)

We know John, Benjamin, Samuel and Ruth were children of David; hence, Mary King was the daughter of David Stowell of Newton. Mary Stowell of Hingham was the only child of William Stowell and married Nathaniel Pitty of Weymouth, as appears in the Hingham and Weymouth Records.

The parentage is further confirmed by the History of Paris, Me. "Samuel Stowell, John Stowell and Richard King were among the original grantees in 1736 of Township No. 4, now Paris, Me." This Samuel and John Stowell are the same as those mentioned in above probate and were children of David of Newton and they joined with them their nephew Richard King, the son of their sister Mary (Stowell) King, in the grant.

The children of John and Mary (Stowell) King were pioneer settlers in that part of Massachusetts, then known as the Province, now as the state of Maine. They were prominent in shaping its destinies, were men of great energy and high character and covered a wide field of activity in both business and political affairs. Their remarkable versatility and commanding influence in shaping public opinion, both before and during the Revolution, and the prominence of their descendants in Legislative, Executive and Diplomatic positions in State and Nation has been universally recognized.

Mary King was admitted to New North Church, Boston, 20 June 1725.

Since those Revolutionary days many descendants also have occupied prominent places in Legislative, Military and Educational positions, notably Gen. Horatio King, who was Postmaster General.

The writer remembers that some fifty years ago, being a young man, he used to feel quite mystified and flattered at the marked cordiality shown him by Gen. King during their conversations. It was explained later when the subject turned to family history and Gen. King remarked, "You know the first King, the immigrant John, born in England, married Mary Stowell and our family have always regarded her as the mother of all the Kings in America and have held her in high esteem on account of her strong character and brilliant intellect and attribute to her the talents possessed by so many of her descendants. That is the reason I take such a warm interest in the Stowell family."

SARAH (MAGOON) FORD, dau. of James and Sarah Magoon and widow of Hezekiah Ford, b. Scituate, Mass., bp. 18 Sept. 1709. She m. 1st at Scituate, Mass., 8 Dec. 1720, HEZEKIAH FORD. There were three Magoon children all baptised on the same day, viz.: 18 Sept. 1709, after the death of their father, James. Sarah, mentioned first and presumably the oldest, was born about 1703.

John Stowell lived in Newton until 1725, then Watertown until 1743, then Worcester, Mass. Was a farmer. He held various offices in Watertown. Was elected fence viewer, 4 March 1727, and March 1728, tythingman 6 March 1731, constable 28 June 1737, one of a committee on Prudentials, 1 May 1724, 23 April 1731 and 29 May 1734. Bought a seat in the Watertown Church in 1732. He was evidently a land speculator as nearly 40 deeds are recorded of his purchases and sales in Newton, Watertown and Worcester, mostly after 1731.

In 7 Middlesex Deeds 1718-1725 John is described as of Newton.

In 14 Middlesex Deeds 1725-1741 John is described as of Watertown.

In 7 Worcester Deeds 1742—John is described as of Watertown.

10 June 1743, Abaisha Rice of Worcester sells to John Stowell of Watertown "my tenant of housing and land in Worcester where I now live, 100 acres." (Wor. Deeds.) The house, now No. 48 Granite St., is part of the old homestead, has always been in possession of the family and is now occupied by his descendants.

1 Dec. 1762, Bond of Administration of John Stowell, yeoman and David Curtis, housewright, both of Petersham and Benjamin Stowell of Worcester, for John Stowell as Administrator on estate of his late father, John Stowell, late of Worcester, deceased. (Wor. Prob. No. 57155.)

The town of Pomfret was on a purchased tract. A list of the proprietors in 1731 mentions David, Jonathan and Nathaniel Stowell as living west of this purchase. Then it says "The Thomas Grow settlement was near the Windham line, now included in the town of Hampton. A large tract of land west of the purchase was owned and occupied by John Stowell." (Hist. of Windham, p. 529.) His name does not appear afterwards in the records. He was a brother of David, Jonathan and Nathaniel and evidently bought land near them when they did and lived there for a short time; but soon returned to Watertown for all his children, except John, are recorded as born in Watertown. John may have been born in Connecticut.

ix. ELIZABETH.

As the three brothers, David, Jonathan and Nathaniel, the sons of David[2], went to Connecticut and as their descendants comprise one-half of all the Stowells in America, it became a tradition that the Stowell family were descended from three brothers.

So the three brothers, Israel, Joseph and Enoch Stowell, sons of Israel[2], went in 1764 to Winchester, N. H. and became the progenitors of about one quarter of all the Stowells, thus strengthening the "three brothers" tradition.

They evidently cut loose from their old Newton home for on the 27 May 1776, they sold, their wives releasing dowers, to their brother Abijah Stowell "all their rights in the estate of their father, Israel Stowell, late of Newton."

They were active in organizing towns and in forming the new state and were ardent patriots in the Revolution. Later their numerous descendants went to New York and the West and were active there in building up new communities.

17. ISAAC[3] STOWELL (Israel[2] Samuel[1]) was born in Newton, Mass., about 1708, mar. there 17 Feb. 1731-2, ABIGAIL HYDE, dau. of Jonathan and Hannah (Dana) Hyde, born about 1712. He resided in Newton, Hopkinton and Dedham, Mass. Was a weaver.

Samuel Hyde embarqued from London with wife Temperance in ship Jonathan, April 1639 and settled in Cambridge Village, now Newton. Was one of the proprietors of Billerica, Mass. He had five children of whom the third was Job who married Elizabeth Fuller, dau. of John and Elizabeth Fuller. Their fifth child was Jonathan who was less than two years old when both parents died. He was brought up by his maternal grandfather, John Fuller. Jonathan was born in Cambridge, 22 May 1684, died in Newton, 2 Aug. 1731, married in Cambridge, 4 April 1706, Hannah Dana, dau. of Jacob and Patience Dana. Their fifth child was Abigail, who married Isaac Stowell. There is no other Hyde family in which she can be placed. She was over eighteen when her father died and therefore no guardian was necessary for her and she married a few months later. She named one son Jacob—not a Stowell name—but the name of her grandfather Jacob Dana and also of her uncle. She named another son Thaddeus, a Hyde name, as did her brother Jonathan who also named a daughter Abigail.

Hannah (Dana) Hyde, married second Henry Adams, his third wife, who in his will gives "to the three daughters of my last wife, Hannah, the goods she brought with her." Mary Smith and Thankful Fay were two of them and Abigail made the third.

As her father, Ebenezer, died before 9 Sept. 1753, Patience was of posthumous birth and was described when baptised at Windham, Conn., 23 Dec. 1753, as the daughter of Hannah Stowell, widow.

Thomas Kingsbury served 28 days in Lexington Alarm. Enlisted 1776 and served one year. Was in battle of White Plains and Princeton. Next enlisted with his team for six months.

vi. WARREN. The Bridgewater Mss. p. 90, N. E. H. G. Soc., by Mitchell, gives Warren as a son of Ebenezer. Warren was a private in Capt. Abner Crane's Co., 3 Feb. 1779 to 4 May 1779, on guard at Boston. Was private in Capt. Jacob Haskins' Co., Col. John Jacob's Regt., 28 Aug. 1779 to 31 Jan. 1780. Was a private in Abram Washburn's Co., Col. Theophilus Cotton's Regt., 10 March 1781 to 1 April 1781, at Rhode Island.

The collateral facts clearly indicate that this Warren was not the son of Ebenezer, as claimed above. Possibly he may have been the son of Samuel[4-3-2-1]. First, Warren is not mentioned in the will of his assumed grandfather David in 1763, while Jonathan, Josiah, Eunice and Patience are mentioned. As Ebenezer died in 1753, before Patience was born, Warren could not have been his son unless he was a twin with Patience; in which case he would have been baptised at the same time.

Abington is a post-office within and a part of the town of Pomfret. Hampton Church seems to have been a neighborhood church on the borders of Windham, Abington and Canada, situated in Windham village. The town clerk of Abington gives the birth of Eunice, Jonathan and Anna as being in Abington and as being the children of Anna. The church records of Hampton church give the birth of Josiah and Patience as being in Hampton and as being the children of Hannah. The church records of Hampton give the baptisms of Eunice, Jonathan, Josiah and Patience as of Windham, but no mention of Warren is made in any of these records.

9 Sept. 1753, Anna Stowell, widow of Ebenezer, was appointed guardian of Jonathan, age 7, Eunice, age 8, Josiah, age 5 and Patience age one year and two months, but there is no mention of Warren. This is singular, as being the youngest, he would need guardianship most.

In Willington deed of 19 Jan. 1769 Eunice Stoel; of 13 Dec. 1769 Jonathan Stoel; of 27 April 1771 Josiah Stoel and of 24 Dec. 1774 Patience Stoel, all of Windham, each sell their one-fourth interest in 90 acres of land left them by their father Ebenezer to Seth Crocker. No deed from Warren is found. Note they each sell one-fourth interest.

28. DAVID[4] STOWELL OR STOEL (David[3-2] Samuel[1]) was born in Pomfret, Conn., 7 July 1736, died at Rockingham, Vt., 7 Dec. 1786, age 50, married at Willington, Conn., 13 Nov. 1756, SARAH ROYSE, dau. of James and Mehitable (Arnold) Royse.

David lived at Willington, Conn. and Walpole, N. H. and was in Rockingham, Vt. before 3 March 1778 when and where he took the oath to support the Constitution of Vermont. Made Freeman in 1781. Was in Capt. Samuel Weatherbee's Co., Col. Isaac Wyman's Regt., Aug. 1776.

David and wife joined the Willington Church, 26 July 1761, and were admitted by letter to Walpole, N. H. Church in 1768.

29. ISAAC[4] STOWELL OR STOEL (David[3-2] Samuel[1]) was born in Pomfret, Conn., 6 Oct. 1739, married at Willington, Conn., 9 Feb. 1758, PHOEBE ROOT, probably dau. of Samuel and Mercy (Parker) Root, born Coventry, Conn., 31 July 1735. Isaac was in Capt. Barker's Co., Col. Conant's Regt. to Fort William Henry in 1757. He enlisted in Capt. Tristrum Davis' Co., 10 March 1760, age 20, residence, Brimfield, father

David, Col. John Worthington's Regt. Isaac Stoel appears on account dated Charlestown, 22 Jan. 1761, rendered by John Foye for money paid to invalids on the Albany road returning from the West. Isaac was chosen Ensign in Capt. Wood's Co., Rockingham, Vt., 18 July 1775. Went to Ticonderoga in Feb. 1777, was color bearer. Was constable of Rockingham, 1777. Took oath of Allegiance to Vermont, June 1777.

Isaac Stowell buys land in Walpole, N. H., 31 Oct. 1765 of Benjamin Bellows. (Provincial Deeds, Vol. 80, p. 531).

30. SAMUEL[4] STOWELL OR STOEL (David[3-2] Samuel[1]) was born in Pomfret, Conn., 2 Sept. 1742, died Pomfret, Conn., 30 Jan. 1824, age 81, married Willington, Conn., 24 April 1760, ANNA RUSS, dau. of John and Rebecca (Wood) Russ, b. Ashford, Conn., 9 Feb. 1748-9, died 11 April 1829, age 80.

Samuel and wife joined the Willington Church 26 July 1761 when he was 19 and she 13 years old. Samuel was famous for his great strength and is accounted the strongest man ever raised in Willington and she the handsomest woman. He is recorded as Samuel Stoel of Willington in 16 deeds 1767 to 1804 in Willington Land Records.

He was in the Revolution. Corp. Samuel Stowell paid from 1 Jan. 1781 to 31 Dec. 1781. 1st Co. Capt. Edward Bulkley, 3d Regt. Col. Samuel B. Webb, on the rolls 25 April 1782, also Light Inf. Co. Capt. Wells, afterwards transferred. (Vol. 8 and 12, Conn. Hist. Soc.). On Pension list 1820.

Mrs. Holman says John and Rebecca (Wood) Russ were married in 1737 and had Abigail, Mary, John, Eunice and Anna. If Anna was born 9 Feb. 1748-49 she was only eleven or twelve years old when married in 1760; yet the names of her children are significant, among them being Abigail, Mary, John, Eunice and Anne, the same as those of her brothers and sisters.

John lived at Worcester until about 1749, then Nichewaug 1749-1759, then Guilford, Vt. 1759, then Petersham, Mass., 1760 until death. In the intervening five years between the birth of Sarah, recorded in Newton in 1723 and of James, recorded in Watertown in 1728, John[3] moved from Newton to Watertown and during this period, probably in 1726, the eldest son John[4] was born, though his birth is not recorded in either place.

That he was the son of John[3] is proven by Worcester Probate 57155, 1 Dec. 1762 where administration on estate of John Stowell, late of Worcester, deceased, was granted to John Stowell Jr. of Petersham. Sureties on bond of John Stowell Jr. were Benjamin Stowell of Worcester, a son, and David Curtis of Petersham, a son-in-law of John[3].

John[4] was another one of those very energetic men who figured largely in business affairs, moved often and pioneered into new and unsettled regions where no official records of birth were kept and paid no attention to keeping them himself so that we have scant data of his numerous family.

Of 19 Worcester Deeds one in 1748 describes him as John Stowell, Jr. of Worcester. Six deeds from 1750 to 1759 describe him as John Stowell Jr. of Nichewaug. Twelve deeds from 1762 to 1789 describe him as John Stowell of Petersham.

John Stowell signed a petition to the Mass. Legislature, 15 March 1770 for a new grant for the township of Alstead, N. H. (Vol. 24, Town Papers of New Hampshire).

5 July 1791, Abel Stowell et als of Petersham, with Benjamin Stowell of Worcester on bond, granted administration on estate of John Stowell of Petersham, deceased, by Abel Stowell and John Dimmick. (Wor. Prob. 57156.)

John Stowell and wife Sarah admitted to Petersham Church, 15 Aug. 1773.

Benjamin lived on Granite St., Worcester, Mass. He was one of the proprietors of Rockingham, Vt. under the grant of 1752. Had a house and lot and 20 acres of land granted him and was living there in 1754. On 11 Aug. 1755, he sold land in Rockingham to Michael Lovell and apparently left there at that time for he married Elizabeth Parker, 23 Oct. 1755, and settled in Worcester where all his children were born.

He inherited land from his father John in Township No. 4, (Paris) Maine, and was given land for his services in the Indian Wars. At a meeting of the proprietors in Watertown, 5 Jan. 1774, he was made one of a committee to build a road in Paris, Me. and on the 22 June 1774, reported to the proprietors that the road had been built. The Revolution evidently interfered with any further settlement in Maine, for, during that period, the family again appear in Vermont at Guilford; but after the War was over the three eldest sons settled on this land in Paris and became the progenitors of the very numerous and highly eminent members of this branch of the Stowell family which was well known in those days throughout Maine.

34. HEZEKIAH[4] STOWELL (John[3] David[2] Samuel[1]) was born in Watertown, Mass., 25 Dec. 1732, d. Afton or Bainbridge, N. Y., married Worcester, Mass., 24 Nov. 1758, HEPZIBAH PERSIS RICE, dau. of Adonijah and Persis (Gates) Rice, b. Worcester, Mass., 3 April 1740.

Hezekiah lived at Lancaster, Worcester and Petersham, Mass., Guilford, Vt., and Bainbridge, N. Y. Was an Innkeeper at Guilford. Farmer at Bainbridge, N. Y.

Hezekiah was evidently a man of great energy, unimpeachable integrity and deep religious convictions and an aggressive leader among men in times of danger. His varied activities present as stirring and picturesque a career as can be found in that famous historical contest between New York and New Hampshire for the possession of Vermont, in which the "Green Mountain Boys" and the "York Party" were the participants and which resulted in Vermont acting as a sovereign unit by itself during the Revolution, in an alliance with the other Colonies against England, but independent both of the other Colonies and of the Continental Congress.

Born in Watertown, Mass., we find him at the age of twenty-two enlisted from Lancaster, Mass. in the expedition under John Winslow which went in 1755 to expel the Arcadians from Arcadia. He married in Worcester in 1758 and lived there until about 1762 when he moved to Petersham; there he remained until about 1766 when he went to Guilford, Vt. where he kept a tavern which became famous as the headquarters of the "York Party" of which he was one of the leading spirits. That the "York Party" reposed unlimited confidence in his ability and integrity is shown by the fact that their meetings were held in his house and all their arms and military supplies were placed in his custody.

Guilford was originally formed under a charter granted by New York. This was afterwards revoked by the King and Council, but later was reestablished by them. New Hampshire granted a Charter to the same land, 2 April 1754, but owing to the Indian Wars, nothing was done. On the 20 March 1764, a new Charter was granted by the King with full powers of self control subject only to the control of the Parliament of England. Thus Guilford became and was the only independent town in Vermont and was, in fact, a little republic of its own. Both New York and New Hampshire granted charters to most of the other lands in what is now Vermont; hence the community was naturally divided into two factions. New York feebly defended its claims. New Hampshire was more aggressive. The movement to form a new state out of this disputed territory became very strong and was supported by the famous "Green Mountain Boys" and opposed by the "York Party" who had their headquarters at Guilford. Both parties vigorously supported the Revolution against England; hence the Continental Congress evaded any positive or final recognition of either for fear of offending the other side with the natural result that both were dissatisfied and both ignored the laws of Congress. Each one also ignored the laws of New York or New Hampshire according to their preferences.

In Guilford they governed themselves entirely and settled all questions by a vote in the town meeting. Here the "York Party" had possession of all the old town records, but for the seven years of the Revolution they kept no records, not even of their own proceedings.

Hezekiah took an active part in the Revolution in behalf of the Colonies. For his services in it and in compensation for the lands in Guilford taken from him, the State of New York gave him, in 1783, 840 acres and gave his son Asa 220 acres in Bainbridge, in what is now Jericho, to which place he moved, 11 July 1786, being the first inhabitant and pioneer settler there. He first located at Bettsburg (name changed to Jericho in 1789) on the east side of the Susquehanna River, living at one time on an island of 40 acres known as "Stowell Island". In 1790 he moved to the west side of the river to what is now Afton, formed from Bainbridge, 18 Nov. 1857; he was buried there.

Hezekiah is said to have had eleven children. His eldest, Levi, is recorded as born in Worcester and Elijah and Persis in Petersham. Asa, the second child, was probably born in Petersham, though not recorded there. The date and place of birth of the other children are unknown as all the old family records were destroyed when the old "Stowell Homestead" built by Hezekiah was burned in 1900.

Hezekiah was one of the grantees of Townshend, Vt., 21 June 1759 and of Chester, Vt., 3 Nov. 1761, both New Hampshire grants. He held the following offices in Guilford, Vt.: Pound Keeper, 17 May 1774. On the Committee of Correspondence for Liberty, Westminster, Vt., 7 Feb. 1775. Captain in Ephraim Doolittle's Regt., 20 May 1775. Surveyor, 6 May 1776.

On Committee of Safety, Pound Keeper, to lay out roads, to sell land, 7 April 1777. To lay out the town into school districts, 12 Jan. 1778. Made Captain of the Guilford Co. in Col. William Williams' Regt., 7 May 1778. Made one of the proprietors of Guilford, 1779. Given charge of the powder, lead and military stores, 18 May 1779. One of the Committee of Safety on the York side, there being one from each of the twenty-one towns of Cumberland Co., 1780. One of County Committee from Guilford, 16 May 1780. One of Committee against the pretended State of Vermont, 1781 and 1782. Justice of the Peace for Cumberland Co., 5 June 1782. Town meeting held at his house, 27 April 1784. One of the founders and deacon of the 1st Presbyterian Church of Bainbridge, 1793.

Edmund Rice was born in England about 1594, settled in Sudbury, then Marlboro, Mass. in 1639 and died there 3 May 1663. He had twelve children of whom the fourth was Thomas[2] who married Mary. He was living in Marlboro in 1664 and died there 16 Nov. 1681. They had thirteen children of whom the eleventh was Jonas[3] born at Marlboro, 6 March 1672-3, died at Worcester, 22 Sept. 1753, age 81, married at Marlboro, 10 Feb. 1701-2 Mary Stone, born there 10 Aug. 1677. He was the first settler of Worcester and Judge of the Court. They had five children of whom the fifth was Adonijah[4] who was the first white child born in Worcester, born 7 Nov. 1714, married Persis Gates who died there 6 June 1760. Adonijah was in several campaigns of the French and Indian Wars in Capt. Andrew Dalrymple's Co. He died at Bridport, Vt., 20 Jan. 1802, age 88. They had eight children of whom the oldest was Persis who married Hezekiah Stowell.

iv. MARDIN or MARVIN, born about 1786. I have found no record of the birth of either a Mardin or Marvin, but in an inventory of the estate of Seth Stowell, 26 April 1800, Mardin Stowell is mentioned as one of the heirs. (Union, Conn. Probates, 26 April 1800.)

The Town Clerk of Tolland, Conn. reports that a Marvin Stowell bought land in Tolland in Feb. 1813, and sold land in June 1814.

Marvin Stowell, tanner of Cazenovia, sold land to Eliakim Sylvester, 19 Aug. 1816 and sold land to Isaac Morse, 20 June 1826. (Madison Co., N. Y. Deeds.)

As Mardin Stowell had sisters Olive and Artemesia, who lived at New Woodstock, which is near Cazenovia, it would seem that Mardin and Marvin might be the same person.

To the Honorable Spencer Phips, Esq., Lieut. Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over His Majesty's Province of the Massachusetts Bay and to the House of Representatives in General Court assembled, 8 Feb. A. D. 1757:

The petition of Jacob Stowell of Needham, in the County of Suffolk, blacksmith, Humbly showeth that your Petitioner served in the expedition against Crown Point the year past, that your Petitioner went in the Spring and came away with the last soldiers that marched off in the Fall. Your Petitioner served in the Company raised by Capt. James Stebbins and since his decease commanded by Capt. William Humphrey, in Col. Ruggles' Regt., that your Petitioner was sick before he set out on his march home when your Petitioner came to the town of Sheffield he could travel no further and a man and horse were sent to the said town and brought your Petitioner home, which cost your Petitioner the sum of four pounds and two shillings lawful money.

Wherefore your Petitioner Humbly Prays that your Honor and this Honorable Court would be pleased to allow and order that your Petitioner shall be paid the said four pounds and two shillings, exclusive of his wages, or to do whatever in your Wisdome and Justice you shall think reasonable and as in duty bound your Petitioner shall ever pray.

Jacob Stowell.

The Committee report four pounds and two shillings in full.

William Richardson, per order.

Jacob first bought land in Uxbridge, per Worcester Deed, 27 June 1760, and is therein described as of Dedham, and his daughter Mary is recorded as born in Dedham, his old home, in 1762. In nine Worcester Deeds 1761 to 1763, he bought and sold lands in Uxbridge, Douglas and Royalshire and is described therein as of Uxbridge. He next appears in Vermont, per Doc. Hist. of New York by Sec. of State, Vol. 4, p. 406-408. 1 Nov. 1770, Jacob Stowell, one of the signers on a petition of the inhabitants of Cumberland and Gloucester Counties in the Province of New York on the west side of the Connecticut River for relief against the New Hampshire Grants, saying disorderly persons in Windsor, Cumberland County had obstructed the Court of Common Pleas of New York, they claiming jurisdiction belonged to New Hampshire instead of to New York.

He evidently had selected Windsor as his permanent home though his first purchase of land there was not until the second of Jan. 1778, which was just the time Burgoyne was invading Vermont. Between that date, 1778 and 1806, his name appears on seven Windsor Deeds. He does not appear of record to have lived there until about 6 Jan. 1782, when he renewed the Covenant at the East Parish Old South Congregational Church. His name appears on the tax list, 7 March 1786 and he was made a Trustee of School District No. 5 in 1786. In 1799 for one dollar he gave a perpetual lease to School District No. 12 of lot 8, Range 9, which was a part of his property of 240 acres, "so long as it was used for school purposes." The school was still in use in 1920.

The following incident which the compiler copied from the First Church records shows the rigid church methods of those days. The First Church extended a call to Mr. Shuttleworth to become their pastor. Afterwards the Trustees thought he was too liberal and dismissed him. Most of the congregation liked him and organized a separate church which Jacob and his wife joined and attended regularly. The old church wrote Jacob and his wife to know why they had neglected to attend communion for three consecutive Sundays. After several letters they finally sent a Committee to personally deliver a warning that if by a fixed date they did not confess and renew the Covenant they would be excommunicated. The committee reported that when they presented the warning "Jacob threatened to foot them out of the house for annoying his wife," so Jacob and wife were excommunicated, 7 Sept. 1792. Beulah, Jacob's wife, was restored to the communion, 6 Feb. 1820, some 28 years later, Jacob having died in 1806.

Will of Jacob Stowell filed 26 Nov. 1806. Elias Hoisington, appointed Executor, deceased before settling the estate when Abram Morey was appointed 24 Jan. 1811. One of the witnesses to the Codicil was Betsey Stowell, wife of son Jacob. Son Oliver not mentioned in will. Legatees: To wife Beulah, one-third of real estate and all the furniture, etc. during her life then it to be divided equally among the three daughters. Son Joel $100 and clock. Daughter Mary, wife of Elias Hoisington, $100. To Beulah, wife of David Lombard, $100. To Daughter Esther, wife of Nathan Barrett, $100. He mar. first HULDAH WARREN. He mar. second MARY STEPHENS HOLMES, dau. of James and Milly Holmes, b. Warwich, Mass., 15 Sept. 1797, d. Odgen, Utah, 20 Nov. 1885, age 88. Resided in Watertown, Brutus, Solon and Westfield, N. Y. Went to Nauvoo in 1846 when the Mormons were driven out, went to Wisconsin, then to Salt Lake City, then to Westfield, N. Y.

There are so many of the Stowell name who have been Communicants of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and who have held prominent positions in it, that a short history of how they became members may be interesting.

They are all descendants of Augustus Oliver Artemas Stowell who was the first one of the name to join. He was a prominent lawyer of Westfield, N. Y. which place with Palmyra was the first center of the new faith founded in 1830. The following account of the way Agustus O. A. came to join the Church was written by his son William Rufus Rogers Stowell and has been taken from his family records.

"In Feb. 1833, when Augustus O. A. and his oldest son Dan were going to Westfield, N. Y. they overtook a Mrs. Brewster and invited her to ride. He remarked 'It is a very cold day.' She replied, 'Yes, it is exceedingly cold, nevertheless, it did not prevent five persons from being baptised today.' He expressed surprise and inquired, 'Of what denomination?' She replied. 'Mormon.' He remarked he had never before heard of such a religion. She replied, 'They are a new sect of religionists and I am now on my way to attend one of their meetings.' She extended to him an invitation to be present which he accepted, sending his son Dan home with the team to inform his family."

"About eleven o'clock A. M. next day he arrived home accompanied by a Mr. Higbee who came with him to the saw mill of Augustus O. A. to buy a load of lumber. An important feature was that Augustus O. A. brought home with him a 'Book of Mormon' which had been loaned him by a neighbor, Mr. John Gould. He told his family what he had seen and heard, read the book, became absorbed in it and studied it intently, but made no comment until after he had twice carefully read it through, when he closed it with emphasis and said with conviction, 'That book is as true as the Bible.' This copy was of the first edition, printed in Palmyra, N. Y. in 1830 and is still in possession of the family."

"Augustus O. A. was baptised in his own mill pond by Elder James Higbee, the same man who accompanied him home from that first meeting. Soon after this his wife, his eldest son Dan and some of his daughters joined, but the second son William Rufus Rogers did not join until Aug. 1834, a year later."

"At this time the Mormons who were actively proselyting were also being subjected to violent persecutions, their property destroyed, and their persons assailed by hostile mobs, so they were forced to move from place to place, gradually gravitating West into what was then a new and sparsely populated country. They finally selected Jackson County, Missouri, as their prospective central headquarters."

"In 1834 a military body called "Zion Camp" composed wholly of Mormons was organized and marched from Ohio to Missouri to defend their brethern, while the Elders strove to prevent the disintegration of their Church, already commenced, because of apostacy through fear and persecutions."

"These persecutions had an important bearing upon the relationship of Augustus O. A. to the Mormon Church for they served to weaken his faith in his religion. He was a stong patriot and a loyal citizen to his Government which he thought the Church antagonized. These views caused him to sacrifice his religion to his patriotism and he withdrew from the Church. He was doubtless honest in his motives but in error as to his facts. He returned to Westfield, N. Y., resumed the practice of law and became prominent in his profession, having previously been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of N. Y., 11 May 1808. He became intolerant and finally forbid his wife and children from attending Church or associating with the Saints, but his son William Rufus Rogers continued in the Church. He had accompanied them in their migrations to Nauvoo, Ill. and was Captain of a military company in the pilgrimage over the Desert to Salt Lake City and in all their battles with the hostile Indians. He was ordained an Elder and rose through all the various Church offices until he became a Patriarch, the highest of all except the President."

To make the record complete it might be added that none of the brothers or sisters of Augustus O. A. ever joined the Mormon Church. Some of the daughters of A. O. A. however, joined and remained in it. Dan, the eldest son of A. O. A. joined when a boy, but after he grew up lost all interest in the Church and remained in New York and Indiana until 1853 when he started with his wife and family of six children for California, but was killed while on the way by the Indians at the massacre at Provo, 16 March 1854. Some of Dan's descendants are members of the Church and some are not.

Augustus, the third and only other son of A. O. A., remained in New York State and never joined the Mormon Church, nor did any of his children.

Franklin K. Lane, former Sec. of the Interior, writes, "Never speak disrespectfully of the Mormon Church. It has as law abiding, hard working and kindly a group of people as will be found anywhere. They worked a miracle when a few hundred crossed the continent, going into an unknown waste and turned that desert that lies around Salt Lake City into a garden."

Sir William Willcocks, the great irrigation expert, who built the Assuan Dam in Egypt and developed the greatest irrigation enterprise in the world, came to the United States to examine our irrigation projects. He reported, "No where else have I ever seen people who understand so wisely how to apply water to land as those living around Salt Lake City."

Martin Stowell was one of the leaders in the attempt to rescue the fugitive slave, Anthony Burns, who had been arrested in May 1854 for deportation south. It was the most daring and famous attempt at slave rescue of the pre-war period.

Thomas W. Higginson on 26 May 1854, called a meeting of the Vigilance Committee to which Wendell Phillips, Theodore Parker and other celebrated abolitionists belonged. A committee of seven, including Martin Stowell, was named to meet that evening in Faneuil Hall where a mass meeting also was to be held upon the question. Martin Stowell, who had been summoned by T. W. Higginson, arrived from Worcester at six P. M. and was ready with a plan which was adopted. This was that each member should lead five picked men and rescue the negro while the mass meeting was being held, with the expectation that the crowd would rush to the Court House and help rescue Burns. The attempt failed through lack of time to fully organize, but about thirty men battered down the doors and fired many shots and one deputy marshal was killed. The leaders were arrested and tried, but released.

Martin Stowell had previously taken part in a slave rescue in Syracuse, N. Y. and later was associated with T. W. Higginson in enforcing the liquor laws in Worcester and in 1856 commanded an armed company in Kansas.

Later was in the Civil War as Sergt. Major of Co. C, 5th Iowa (Curtiss Horse) Cavalry and was killed at Paris, Kentucky.
